A FRAMEWORK FOR ENGAGEMENT

Considering the stumbling blocks and pitfalls that prevent many Christians from taking action "then what must we do?"

The simple, yet profound, response to this question appears to be this:

"Love God as redeemer and creator, acknowledge God's love for the world, be open to the leading of the Holy Spirit, and act upon this by following Jesus who creates, upholds, and reconciles all things" (Col. 1:15-20; John 1:1-5).

But a serious problem remains: most people today have been alienated from the Creator and God's creation, and thus it is difficult to love, uphold, and make right again a world that we really do not know.

Therefore, many will first have to become aware of creation and its God-declared goodness. Once we have gained awareness, we then can move to appreciation, and from appreciation on to stewardship.

Jesus Appears to Thomas

24 ... "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

²⁶ ... "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."

²⁸ Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

John 20:24-29

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, 10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.
